PNB Perdana Hotel & Suites on The Park
Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

The 5 days program refreshes and develops participants' understanding of risk through lectures, discussions and case studies. It goes further along the line of sight in enhancing risk management skill-set and techniques.

This is with the view of developing a critical and innovative outlook amongst the participants. The program principally covers risk, from analogy to processes. It looks into pertinent risk issues to Islamic banks namely on capital, capital allocation, liquidity, compliance to Basel II/Basel III and also brings out through the modality of Islamic banking through introduction of new laws, guidelines and directives often used in enhancing both Corporate and Shariah Governance in Islamic banks.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Understand and able to articulate the Shariah perspective on risk, risk taking behavior and discuss risk appetite of Islamic banks;
- Understand and able to link risk and risk management to the governance of Islamic banks under the respective Corporate or Shariah Governance framework;
- Understand and critically discuss critical success factors (CSFs) in running the business namely on the role of capital, managing capital, managing liquidity and sources of funds;
- Understand the current and specific concerns of Islamic banks in terms of the structure of its balance sheet, on distinguishing the role of investment vs. aave deposits as a major influence to its bottom line and lastly, to address and acknowledge the importance of managing Shariah non-compliance risk (SNCR).

EXPECTED OUTCOME

By the end of the programme the participants will be able to critically identify risk and risk management as a major concern which needs to be pro-actively managed to protect and enhance the value proposition offered by Islamic banks either from the Shariah perspective or in terms of the business offerings in terms of their products and services.

ABOUT MTCP

The Malaysian Technical Cooperation Programme (MTCP) was initiated at the First Commonwealth Heads of Government Regional Meeting (CHGMRM) for Asia Pacific Region in Sydney in February 1978. It was officially launched on 7 September 1980 at the 2nd CHGMRM in New Delhi, India, to signify Malaysia's commitment to South-South Cooperation, in particular Technical Cooperation among Developing Countries (TCDI).

Objectives of MTCP:

- To share development experience with other countries;
- To strengthen bilateral relations between Malaysia and other developing countries;
- To promote South-South Cooperation (SSC); and
- To promote technical cooperation among developing countries (TCDI).

The MTCP emphasises the development of human resources through the provision of training in various areas which are essential for a country's development such as public administration, good governance, health services, education, sustainable development, agriculture, trade and investment, ICT and banking. Since its inception in 1980, more than 33,000 participants from 144 recipient countries have benefited from the various programmes offered under the MTCP.
