Re: Invitation Letter for JICA Knowledge Co-Creation Program for long term participants
(JICA Development studies program)

To whom it may concern,

It is my pleasure to inform you that JICA will organize a Knowledge Co-Creation Program for long-term participants (JICA Development Studies Program) on “Agriculture Studies Networks for Food Security” in accordance with the course information booklet attached herewith.

JICA is ready to accept one participant from Bosnia and Herzegovina for Master or Ph.D. program in Japan as of September 1, 2025. we would like to ask you to forward the following documents for application from prospective nominees to the JICA Balkan Office by October 15, 2024:

1. Letter or Note Verbal from your government.
2. Application Form
3. Graduation Certificate
4. Academic transcript
5. Passport copy
6. Photocopy of Certificate of English test
7. 2 ID photos (posted on application form, one original and one copy)
8. Health certificate (to be submitted later)

Important information

Targeting organization and participant: This program is designed for young or middle-career government officials, prospective academics, or personnel of private institutions who are expected to contribute policy formulation or its implementation for tackling sustainable developmental issues in respective fields.

Each applicant should meet requirements (such as present position, educational and occupational background, age, fluency in English, etc.), as mentioned in the information booklet.

It is preferable to submit more than one nominee for application, even though official letter informs of acceptance of one participant.

If you need any additional information, please contact the JICA Sarajevo Office at + 387 33 220 190.

Sincerely,

for UEKI Masahiro
Chief Representative
JICA Balkan Office
